Dear New Hampshire Voters,

America needs leaders like Gerard Beloin who aren't afraid to stand up to corruption that is destroying our country. Confronted with death threats, Mr. Beloin has already proven that he's not afraid to stand up to political bullying, and he continues to do so because he is an honest man of principle.

I heard a television news pundit say that New Hampshire political corruption is some of the worst in the country. After hearing the story of Gerard Beloin, I had to agree. If men like Gerard Beloin are silenced, the reputation for your state will only get worse. I've been amazed by Gerard's bulldog tenacity, and if he is elected, I have no doubt that he will restore the public trust.

I fought the same type of taxpayer rip-off scheme in Indiana by the very same company that my co-patriot is fighting in your state. In fact, Gerard has been a valuable resource in my quest for accountability and justice. As a result of our combined efforts, Indiana's attorney general put a stop to the corruption involving no-bid roofing contracts that were costing taxpayers millions of dollars each year.

Gerard Beloin has exposed the same type of corruption in your state and is still fighting against well-connected politicians who are reportedly making a living off of it. They're still trying to silence Gerard Beloin, but we must not let them succeed.

If you're tired of the status quo in our country and the state of New Hampshire and desire change, you must get behind the candidacy of Gerard Beloin for US Congress. If I were a citizen in New Hampshire, I would proudly cast my vote for him.

Sincerely,
